

American Foundation for Suicide Prevention's
15th Annual

International Survivors of Suicide Day

Saturday, November 23, 2013

Thousands of survivors of suicide loss gather together around the world on this day for mutual support & practical guidance on coping with grief.

"Before today, I didn't realize that there are others out there who feel exactly the way I feel." - Survivor from Alberta, Canada

If you have lost someone to suicide, you are invited to connect with others who have survived the tragedy of suicide loss.

On this day, survivors will connect both in person and in spirit internationally as they come together to watch a special broadcast of survivors and experts addressing questions that so many bereaved survivors face.
